NOTICE OF DISCLOSURE RIGHTS

Parties to an EEOC charge are entitled to review and obtain copies of documents contained in their investigative file. Requests must be made in writing to Sylvia Bustos and either mailed to the address above, faxed to (312) 869-8220 or sent via email to sylvia.bustos@eoc.gov (please chose only one method, no duplicate requests).

PHONE 312-869-8440

If you are the Charging Party and a RIGHT TO SUE has been issued, you may be granted access to your file:

- * Before filing a lawsuit, but within 90 days of your receipt of the Right to Sue, or
- * After your lawsuit has been filed. If more than 90 days have elapsed since your receipt of the Right to Sue, include with your request a copy of the entire court complaint (with court stamped docket number) or enough pages to determine whether it was filed based on the EEOC charge.

If you are the Respondent you may be granted access to the file only after a lawsuit has been filed. Include with your request a copy of the court complaint that includes an official court stamped docket number.

Pursuant to federal statutes, certain documents, such as those which reflect the agency's deliberative process, will not be disclosed to either party.

You must sign an Agreement of Nondisclosure before you are granted access to the file, which will be sent to you after receipt of your written request. (Statutes enforced by the EEOC prohibit the agency from making investigative information public.)

The process for access to the file will begin no later than ten (10) days following receipt of your request.

When the file becomes available for review, you will be contacted. You may review the file in our offices and/or request that a copy of the file be sent to you. Files may not be removed from the office.

Your file will be copied by Aloha Document Services, 60 East Van Buren, Suite 1502, Chicago, IL 60605, (312) 542-1300. You are responsible for the copying costs and must sign an agreement to pay these costs before the file will be sent to the copy service. Therefore, it is recommended that you first review your file to determine what documents, if any, you want copied. EEOC will not review your file or provide a count of the pages contained in it. If you choose not to review your file, it will be sent in its entirety to the copy service, and you will be responsible for the cost. Payment must be made directly to Aloha Document Services, which charges 15 cents per page.

THE EEOC IS CLOSING ITS FILE ON THIS CHARGE FOR THE FOLLOWING REASON:

The facts alleged in the charge fail to state a claim under any of the statutes enforced by the EEOC.

Your allegations did not involve a disability as defined by the Americans With Disabilities Act.

The Respondent employs less than the required number of employees or is not otherwise covered by the statutes.

Your charge was not timely filed with EEOC; in other words, you waited too long after the date(s) of the alleged discrimination to file your charge

The EEOC issues the following determination: Based upon its investigation, the EEOC is unable to conclude that the information obtained establishes violations of the statutes. This does not certify that the respondent is in compliance with the statutes. No finding is made as to any other issues that might be construed as having been raised by this charge.

The EEOC has adopted the findings of the state or local fair employment practices agency that investigated this charge.

- NOTICE OF SUIT RIGHTS -

(See the additional information attached to this form.)

Title VII, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act, or the Age Discrimination in Employment Act: This will be the only notice of dismissal and of your right to sue that we will send you. You may file a lawsuit against the respondent(s) under federal law based on this charge in federal or state court. Your lawsuit must be filed WITHIN 90 DAYS of your receipt of this notice; or your right to sue based on this charge will be lost. (The time limit for filing suit based on a claim under state law may be different.)

Equal Pay Act (EPA): EPA suits must be filed in federal or state court within 2 years (3 years for willful violations) of the alleged EPA underpayment. This means that backpay due for any violations that occurred more than 2 years (3 years) before you file suit may not be collectible.

I began employment with Respondent in or around January 1996. My position was Customer Service Agent. During my employment, I was subjected to different terms and conditions of employment than non-Black, female, and younger employees, including, but not limited to, discipline and discharge.

I believe that I have been discriminated against because of my race, Black, and sex, male, in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended.

I also believe that I have been discriminated against because of my age, 53 (d.o.b. August 29, 1960), in violation of the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended.

I want this charge filed with both the EEOC and the State or local Agency, if any. I will advise the agencies if I change my address or phone number and I will cooperate fully with them in the processing of my charge in accordance with their procedures.
